Departments

2 FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
3 PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE
4 FEEDBACK
6 INFORMATION FEATURE
   CNA's governance journey
   What CNA members need to know about upcoming governance changes
8 PERSPECTIVES
   News | Calculations | The Hospital Series
14 @CNA: YOUR LINK TO THE
   CANADIAN NURSES ASSOCIATION
18 PROMISING PRACTICES
   Most kids don’t: Changing perceptions about tobacco use
   Public health nurses in B.C.’s Cowichan Valley lead a collaborative program to address a major health concern in the community
32 REFLECTION
   Power up your leadership: Straight talk for nurse managers
   Barb Fry shares the hard lessons she learned as a nurse manager
34 NURSE TO KNOW
   John Pringle: Off the beaten track
   Connecting nursing with epidemiology for a career in global health
43 CLASSIFIEDS
44 THE LAST WORD
   Where does the leadership come from?

Features

20 From the Ground Up
   Researcher and educator Sean Clarke shares astute — and sometimes surprising — insights on nursing research in Canada

26 Growing Tomorrow’s Leaders
   Leadership development programs for mid-career nurses

ON THE COVER: A big thank you to Gillian Strudwick, RN, MN, CVAA(C), of Toronto, whose “face of nursing” suggestion inspired our May cover. From left to right, Sean Clarke (p. 20), Barb Mildon (p. 6), Tyla Turman (p. 30) and John Pringle (p. 34) embody this year’s National Nursing Week slogan, Nursing: A Leading Force for Change.