

Living professionalism : reflections on the practice of medicine

2006 115 pages paperback

ISBN-10 0-7425-4851-1

ISBN-13 978-0-7425-4851-0

Table of Contents

1. Living professionalism medicine : an introduction
2. The power of narrative reflections
3. Generational differences and the challenges to achieving a more reflective definition for professionalism
4. The future of medicine
5. How do you tell your first patient he'll die?
6. Learning Japanese
7. In the operating room
8. Professionalism , professional autonomy , and the envelope or knowledge
9. Developing professional skills
10. Failing at teaching professionalism
11. On professionalism course
12. Veiling the scrubs
13. Family physician
14. Not of our choosing
15. A patient reflects
16. The role reflection in professionalism education