

書名 Patient advocacy for health care quality : strategies for achieving patient-centered care
作者 Jo Anne L. Earp 、 Elizabeth A. French
書碼 W85/P29725/2008
登錄號 E0011073

Table of Contents :

I. Introduction

Chapter 1: What Is Patient Advocacy?

Chapter 2: The U.S. Health Care System and the Need for Patient Advocacy

II. STRATEGY 1 Understanding What Patients Are Doing

Chapter 3: Family-Centered Care

Chapter 4: E-Patients

Chapter 5: The Long Reach to Basic Healthcare Services

Connector 1: Strategy 1 – Strategy 2

III. STRATEGY 2 Improving Providers' Ability to Communicate

Chapter 6: The Clinician's Experience

Chapter 7: Accessing the Patient's World

Chapter 8: Advocacy and Patient Literacy

Chapter 9: Improving the Quality of Care through Research

Connector 2: Strategy 2 – Strategy 3

IV. STRATEGY 3 Transforming Hospital and Med School

Chapter 10: The Contributions of Patient Advocacy in Patient Safety

Chapter 11: Planetree, a Hospital Model for Patient-Centered Care

Chapter 12: Confronting the Hidden Curriculum in Medical Education

Chapter 13: Advocacy for Improving End-of-Life Care

Connector 3: Strategy 3 – Strategy 4

V. STRATEGY 4 Making Consumers' Voice Heard

Chapter 14: Did patient/consumers cause the health care crisis?

Chapter 15: Grassroots Advocacy for Residents in Long Term Care

Chapter 16: Access to Healthcare

Chapter 17: Research Advocacy in Traditional Research Settings

Connector 4: Strategy 4 – Strategy 5

VI. STRATEGY 5 Advancing Education and Professional

Chapter 18: Educating for Advocacy in Settings of Higher Learning

Chapter 19: Clinical Advocacy

Chapter 20: Using the Law to Strengthen the Patient's Voice

VII. Conclusion

Chapter 21: Patient Advocacy